۱۵	متن زیر را بخوانید و به سوالات آن پاسخ دهید For many years people have been trying to create a simple universal language that would serve all over the world as a common means of communication. In the last three hundred years, more than seven hundred such languages have been suggested. The most successful and the most popular of these is a language called Esperanto. It was invented by Ludwig Zamenhof, who lived in Poland. When he was growing up, he saw that people from different backgrounds who lived in Poland had lots of difficulties communicating with each other. Ludwig felt that a common language would help them understand each other better. So he began working on a common international language. He started his work while he was still at school! In ۱۸۸۷, he published some information about his new language. He did not use his real name. He used the name Dr. Esperanto (which means "one who hopes"). Soon people from all over the world became interested in his language, called Esperanto. Today, Esperanto is spoken by about eight million people all over the world. Many governments and international organizations recognize (it) in many ways.
